Naturalization Examination Requirement Begins School Year 2021-2022

Beginning with the 2021-2022 school year, public school corporations must provide the naturalization examination to students completing a U.S. Government course and report the results to IDOE in addition to posting them on their public website. The term “school corporation” is defined in IC 20-18-2-16 as “a public school corporation established by Indiana law.”
