BIOGRAPHY

State Sen. Linda Rogers has served Senate District 11 since her election in 2018. She represents portions of Elkhart and St. Joseph counties.

Rogers serves as chair of the Senate Committee on Pensions and Labor. She also serves as a member of the Senate Committees on Education and Career Development; Elections; Family and Children Services; and Tax and Fiscal Policy, as well as the School Funding Subcommittee.

Rogers has spent nearly 40 years in the Michiana area as a small business owner and leader, operating Juday Creek Golf Course and Nugent Builders, Inc., a custom home builder.

She has served as the first female President of the Home Builders Association of St. Joseph Valley, and as a member of the Indiana Golf Course Owners Association. She is the only woman to be elected President of the Indiana Builders Association and the National Golf Course Owners Association.

Rogers is dedicated to improving the education system, holding a bachelor's degree in mathematics for secondary education from Central Michigan University. She has received the American Board for Certification of Teacher Excellence Award.

Rogers resides in Granger with her husband, Mike. They have one daughter, Michelle Wittig, and two grandchildren.
