Montgomery County Community Foundation
 Granting 1991 - 2017
 $19,237,323

Category/Agency	Grant Highlights
Arts & Culture Sugar Creek Players	Fire protection for the Vanity Theater was the theme of the 2017 grant to SCP. This downtown gem has received a total of $171,511 in MCCF grants. The theater provides a year-round slate of top-quality productions featuring tremendous local talent.
Community Development Darlington Forever, Inc.	When the National Guard retired the Darlington Armory building in 2008, they gave it to the Town of Darlington. Darlington Forever Inc. is working with the Darlington Community Center Board to enhance this historic building as the Darlington Community Center. Grants awarded to this organization total $107,351.
Education Montgomery County Educational Foundation	The Montgomery County Educational Foundation makes grants to public school teachers for creative projects and activities to enhance learning in the classroom. Since 1993, they have received $262,742 in grants.
Health Montgomery County Free Clinic	The Dr. Mary Ludwig Clinic offers medical, dental, and immunizations for uninsured county residents. Their current grant is supporting dental care and community outreach efforts. Through a variety of types of awards, MCCF has awarded $1,449,793 to the Montgomery County Free Clinic, formerly Christian Nursing Service. A large sum of “pass-through” grants were made during the construction of the facility on Mill Street, meaning donations and grants made to the clinic were received, managed, then distributed to the clinic as needed throughout the construction phase.
Historical Lew Wallace Study Preservation Society	Since 1998, MCCF grants totaling $281,975 have helped to restore the Carriage House into a visitor’s center and exhibit space, replaced the copper domed roof, restored original paintings on the interior dome of the Study, and most recently, is restoring several paintings and frames in the Wallace collection.
Human Services Pam’s Promise	Pam’s Promise has been actively serving the homeless population here in Montgomery County since 2009. Currently they can only serve women, or women and their children. Their most recent MCCF grant will help them renovate a home to accommodate men with children, and intact families. Since 2012, Pam’s Promise has received $38,375.
Youth Boys & Girls Club of Montgomery County	The Boys & Girls Club has received $900,120 since 1996 to support a variety of needs such as playgrounds, programs, and parking lots. The club offers an After School Program that allows scores of parents to work while providing their children with recreational activities and homework help in a positive, supportive atmosphere.
