Grants Awarded

Montgomery County Community Foundation

Granting 1991 - 2018

$20,521,601

Category/Agency	Grant Highlights
Arts & Culture Athens Arts	An $11,974 grant to Athens Arts provided support for the 2019 [untitled] a juried exhibition, which garnered more than 400 entries. They have benefitted from grants totaling $144,049 since their establishment through Crawfordsville Main Street in 2010.
Community Development Animal Welfare League	Animal Welfare League provides the animal control needs for the city and most of the county. In 2018, they collaborated with the Parks & Recreation Dept. to develop Bark Avenue, a dog park on their property. Since 1996, AWL has received $373,804.
Education Montgomery County Educational Foundation	The Educational Foundation makes grants to public school teachers for creative projects and activities, which enhance learning in the classroom. Since 1993, they have received $289,492. Projects cover a broad range of interests and needs, from music, speech and hearing, to STEM activities.
Health Montgomery County Free Clinic School Health & Welfare Funds	A great deal of MCCF health funds goes to the Montgomery County Free Clinic. They operate the Dr. Mary Ludwig Clinic, which offers medical, dental, and immunizations for uninsured residents. Health related grants also go to each of the school corporation's Health & Welfare funds. These funds help meet expenses such as prescriptions, vision, and dental care for students, not covered by insurance.
Historical Historical Society General Lew Wallace Study Montgomery County Cultural Foundation	Our county is fortunate to have six wonderful museums, all of which have received support through our grants. The Historical Society received $8,263 in 2018 to make some much-needed repairs to Lane Place and to remove two hazardous trees. Since 1994, they have received $957,549 in grants, much of which came from a designated fund for their benefit. The Cultural Foundation and the Study also benefit from designated funds.
Human Services Family Crisis Shelter	This shelter, which serves victims of domestic violence, purchased furniture and furnishings with their most recent grant. Since 1998, Family Crisis Shelter has received $276,386, half of which came from a designated fund for their benefit.
Youth Youth Service Bureau	MCCF's grant of $100,000 helped the YSB leverage $800,010 in a grant from North Central Health Services. This, along with other gifts, allowed them to purchase and renovate the former Mills School building on West Pike Street, which they will move into sometime in the spring of 2019. Since 1996, YSB has received $531,739.
These grants include designated and agency fund distributions, pass through funds, and unrestricted awards
