

STATE SENATOR JEFF RAATZ

SENATE DISTRICT 27

BIOGRAPHY

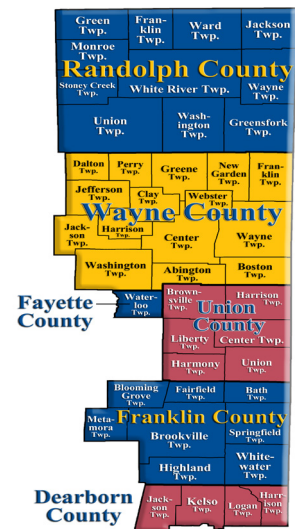

Indiana State Sen. Jeff Raatz has represented Hoosiers in Senate District 27 at the Statehouse since his election to the Senate in 2014. Senate District 27 includes Randolph, Wayne and Union counties and portions of Dearborn, Franklin and Fayette counties.

Raatz is the Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Education and Career Development and is a member of the Senate Committees on Insurance and Financial Institutions, Tax and Fiscal Policy and School Funding Subcommittee.

Professionally, he is the business owner of Raatz LLC, a business-coaching organization offering consulting in the areas of general business practice, IT implementation, cash flow and OSHA standards. Previously, he served as the principal of Richmond Academy, a Christian school. He holds a bachelor's degree from Baker College of Muskegon in business and a master's degree from Indiana University in management. Raatz has also served in the U.S. Army.

Raatz's civic involvement goes beyond his service in the General Assembly. He sits on the advisory board of IU East and the IU East Business Graduate Program. He is also a board member for the Kiwanis Club and Cross Power Ministries.

Raatz and his wife, Lisa, reside in Richmond with their two daughters, one a junior in college and one a registered nurse.
