To Whom It May Concern:

We are sending this as a letter of commendation and appreciation for the work done on the new Hubbard County Law Enforcement Center Project by Project Superintendent Travis Bush. Travis was very professional and courteous during the construction phase. Open communication is very important when working on a construction project and Travis answered any questions that we had, listened to and addressed our concerns. Travis and employees like him reflect positively on their employers. They add to the reputation of your company, Pauly Jail, as being a professional and reputable business.

We opened our 116 bed Detention Center on May 24, 2006, and Travis has been very prompt in addressing issues when they have arisen. He kept in contact with me and kept me informed of the status if it was taking longer than normal to resolve. He called ahead of time to check to see that I was available and that it was convenient for him to come to the facility to resolve and issue. That is greatly appreciated as I often had contractors show up when I was on my way out the door, in a meeting or not even in the office needing to see me about a problem or issue. He also follows up to make sure everything is still operating properly.

Travis Bush is a valuable asset to your company.

Sincerely,

Sherri Klasen
