Since it is important that grievances be processed as rapidly as possible, the number of days indicated at each level should be considered as maximum. The time limits specified may, however, be extended by mutual written agreement.

Step I.

a. The grievant may orally present the alleged violation to his/her building principal and/or supervisor in an effort to resolve the matter informally.

b. If, as a result of the informal discussion with his/her building principal and/or supervisor, a grievance still exists, the grievant may file a written grievance on the form provided in Appendix A by submitting the form to the building principal and/or supervisor within ten (10) days of the alleged violation or within ten (10) days of when he/she should have had knowledge of the alleged violation. The grievant may choose to submit the grievance in writing without oral presentation. Within five (5) days of receipt of the grievance, the principal and/or supervisor shall, if requested, meet the grievant in an effort to resolve the grievance. The principal and/or supervisor shall advise the grievant of his disposition in writing within five (5) days of receipt of the grievance.

Step II. If the grievant is not satisfied with the disposition in Step I., he/she may submit the written grievance on the form provided in Appendix A to the superintendent or his/her designee of the Union County-College Corner Joint School District within five (5) days after the answer in Step I. Within five (5) days of receipt of the grievance, the superintendent or his/her designee will meet with the grievant if requested to do so in an effort to resolve the grievance. The superintendent or his/her designee shall answer the grievance in writing within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance.

Step III. If the grievant is not satisfied with the disposition in Step Two, he/she may submit the written grievance on the form provided in Appendix A to the administrative office of the school board within five (5) days from the answer in Step Two. The board shall review the grievance at its next regular meeting or within forty (40) days, whichever is less, and render a decision within ten (10) days after such meeting. The grievant has the right to be present at such a meeting to present his/her views to the board if the grievant requests to do so.
