Your House History Conversation Group Hear Stories from Others and Learn Research Tips

Franklin, Ind. – Want to know more about the history of your house? Join us for the first house history conversation March 6 at 6 p.m.

Our new conversation group brings together Johnson County homeowners with a passion for local history. We'll exchange stories, share research tips, informational resources and more.

We will meet on Mondays once a month in the Historical Room at the Franklin Branch. For more information or to register for this program, please call 317-738-9711 or visit pageafterpage.org/register.
