Johnson County Public Library Introduces Kanopy
New Streaming Service Now Available to JCPL Cardholders

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Johnson County Public Library is pleased to share that we are now partnering with Kanopy. JCPL cardholders can now stream films from the Criterion Collection, Great Courses, PBS and thousands of independent filmmakers for free!

Kanopy is a streaming video service with more than 30,000 films and counting, specializing in independent films, documentaries, classic and early films, international cinema and educational videos.

Users can stream up to 10 films per month. Films are available for three days and play credits will reset on the first of each month. Access Kanopy from any device including iOS, Android, Apple TV, Roku, Chromecast and many more!

Create watch lists, share films on social media, embed clips in websites, make playlists and comment or rate a film. Kids mode is also an option.

Create an Account:

- Visit jcplin.kanopy.com or download the Kanopy app to sign up
- Enter your email address and create a password
- Click on the verification link you receive in your email
- Enter your library card number
