Award-Winning Local Author to Speak at the Franklin Branch
Romance Author A.D. Ellis To Visit in November

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Hear from local award-winning author of “real-life contemporary romance novels,” A.D. Ellis at our Franklin Branch Nov. 4.

She will be stopping by to talk about her latest book, “Kade and Cameron” – book six in her Something About Him male/male romance series. This author chat will include time for questions and answers that is intended for adults (ages 18+) due to the books’ adult language and adult situations. The visit will also include a book signing.

Ellis is the author of the Something About Him series and the Torey Hope series. Check out these titles and more at JCPL.

For more information, please contact Monica Harvey at 317-738-2957 or visit pageafterpage.org/programs.
